MESSAGE FROM THE FINA PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

It is my great pleasure to welcome the Masters Family to the 17th FINA World Masters Championships 2017, to take place from August 7 - 20, 2017 in Budapest (HUN). This is the second time this competition is held in conjunction with the FINA World Championships, also staged in the Magyar capital from July 14 - 30.

Our hosts are ready to deliver a great event and will provide the best possible conditions to the thousands of participants in this competition. This will certainly reinforce the traditional values of the Masters Movement - friendship, understanding and fitness.

This significant change - introduced since the 2015 edition in Kazan (RUS) - gave additional visibility to the Masters athletes and allows, for many of them, to witness the performances of the elite stars in the pool.

This major event - in fact, the biggest championships organised by FINA in terms of participation - is certainly a milestone for those who devoted part of their lives to their passion for one of the five FINA disciplines: swimming, diving, water polo, synchronised swimming and open water swimming.

With the FINA World Masters Championships, we want to prove that even when retired from the high level competition, or just practicing sport for leisure, our athletes are still capable to delight us with their performances. Thousands of athletes, from 25 years old up to 90 or more, confirm that the aquatic vocation is still there no matter the age.

I take this opportunity to express my gratitude and recognition to the Hungarian Swimming Federation, to the city of Budapest, to the Hungarian Government and to the efficient Organising Committee of these championships for their professionalism and support. Their support will be a guarantee of a successful competition and the experience of Hungary in hosting aquatic events will certainly be an added value to this organisation.

I wish the Masters participants the best luck for the 17th FINA World Masters Championships in 2017.

Dr. Julio C. Maglione

FINA President

MESSAGE FROM THE MINISTER OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND CHAIRMAN OF THE OC, DR. MIKLÓS SESZTÁK

Dear Visitors!

'When you have walked so far that you can go no farther, you have only travelled half the distance you are really capable of.'

That is the essence of a favourite Greenland saying that highlights the essence of human capability. In sport in Hungary we are continuously breaking records - our 176 Olympic gold medal tally speaks for itself - and now, with the organisation of the FINA World Championships and World Masters Championships, we are reaching new heights outside the arena, too. We have only had two years to do what other hosts normally have seven for: constructing the Championship venues and performing all the related tasks, as well as preparing the two host cities, Budapest and Balatonfüred, to welcome an event which will be viewed by around one sixth of the global population.

As registration opens, competitors are getting closer and closer to the year's greatest sport event and we are expecting a greater number of participants than ever before at both the FINA World Championships and the World Masters Championships.

I am sure that the accompanying events and the beautiful backdrops to the competitions - the River Danube and Lake Balaton, and of course our capital - will provide unforgettable, life-long memories to the tens of thousands of visitors.

See you soon, in Hungary!

Dr. Miklós Seszták

Minister of National Development

MESSAGE FROM THE STATE SECRETARY FOR SPORTS, DR. TÜNDE SZABÓ

Dear Friends!

Following the two-week, FINA World Championships in July, it is a tremendous honour for us to host the FINA World Masters Championships from August 7th to 20th.

This will be the 17th time that the world's best master swimmers, divers, water polo players, open water swimmers and synchronised swimmers have gathered from all over the globe to strive for victory at their grand World Championships. Hungarians are passionate about aquatics and masters swimming has an especially great tradition in our country. A significant number of athletes compete in the annual National events, as well as in the World Championships; reinforcing the message that sport is not only the privilege of youth, but that any and all can live an active, healthy, daily life, regardless of age.

Hungary is keen to improve the health of its citizens, to raise the numbers of people regularly exercising and to popularise sports; which is why an international event hosted on home-soil is always a great opportunity for us.

The FINA World Masters Championships will not only offer unforgettable sporting experiences, but will be a great get-together, a jamboree, as well. Competitors are usually accompanied by family and friends, and multiple generations can enter the various disciplines at the same time.

Regardless of age, every athlete's ultimate goal is - through continuous endeavour - to stand on the top of the podium, to become a hero and to make their fans and nation proud.

I hope to prove to the world that our master athletes, too, are true examples of pure determination, desire and endeavour, and that August may see us crown many new heroes!

Dr. Tünde Szabó

State Secretary for Sports Ministry of Human Resources

HUNGARY

2.1. WELCOME TO HUNGARY

The 2017 World Masters Championships will probably be the biggest FINA event ever in terms of participation. As Budapest has become a top destination, not only is a broad selection of accommodation available but a wide range of swimming pools is at athletes' disposal for both training and competition. All Masters Athletes who make the grade are welcome to one of the most exciting periods of the year. Mid-August offers everything that makes Budapest and Balatonfüred so adorable in summer time. To avoid any clash in the field of accommodation with the Formula One Hungarian GP – which is to be held on the last weekend of July, parallel with the FINA Worlds –, the time of the Masters Championships have been set for August 7th -20th 2017. That also offers a unique opportunity for the participants to spend some time at the neighbouring Sziget Festival, for lovers of modern music, which is to be held during the first week of our event. In addition, it is also worth staying until the very end, as August 20th is the day when Hungary celebrates the foundation of its state with spectacular shows on, along and above the Danube; crowned by a breath-taking firework display after dark. Some might also take a further, 3 day, extension in order to take in the Robbie Williams concert at the Groupama Arena on August 23rd.

Hungary is a medium-sized country in the Carpathian basin, with a population of ten million. It has had statehood for more than one thousand one hundred years and has been a member state of the European Union since 2004. The country has an area of about 93,000 square kilometres and its official language is Magyar, which is the most widely spoken non-Indo-European language in Europe.

Hungary is relatively small and throughout history the country has had numerous influences, absorbing values, cultures and traditions from both eastern and western heritage. Hungary has given the world many well-known inventors, scientists, explorers, composers and sports stars, and has more Nobel prize-winners per capita than any other nation.

In addition to being a world leader in Nobel Prize laureates, Hungary has given the world many famous inventions and innovations: matches (János Irinyi), the dynamo and the soda-water machine (Ányos Jedlik), the telephone exchange (Tivadar Puskás), the helicopter (Oszkár Asbóth), the ballpoint pen (László Bíró) the concept of digital computing (János von Neumann) the colour TV (Peter Károly Goldmark) or the design of the Volkswagen Beetle, to name but a few.

Across the country there are 8 World Heritage Sites and the relatively small territory of Hungary contains many beautiful natural features both inside and outside its 10 national parks: charming rivers, gentle hills, lakes with soft fresh water, lush natural forests, broad plains, caves and caverns with fantastic underground treasures and, not least, the world's second largest thermal lake. The beautiful scenery provides great opportunities for hiking and other fun outdoor activities, making the country an increasingly popular European tourist destination. Currently, with over 12 million visitors annually, Hungary ranks as the 23rd most visited country in the world.

In Hungary, both Budapest, the capital, and the countryside evoke a strong sense of history and tradition at every turn. In Hungary many cities still have their classic old historical attractions, showing influences from various cultures, including Turkish invaders, Austrian emperors and Italian Renaissance designers.

Visitors can enjoy discovering some of the real treasures of the country: the Great Hungarian Plain is one of the most extensive in Europe, the northernmost historical mosque on the continent is to be found in the city of Pécs, while the nearby town of Villány produces some of the best red wines in Hungary. With its scenic setting and beautiful old houses, Hollókő is a village in which the traditional way of life is kept alive. Esztergom, a charming little town with an imposing Basilica is the spiritual home, and first capital, of Hungary and Aggtelek offers the unique adventure of visiting the largest cave system in central Europe. The Tokaj region's gift to the world is the dessert wine, produced there and known as the "wine of kings and king of wines". Lake Hévíz with its 25°C annual average water temperature is the largest biologically active thermal lake in Europe and there are many other historic spa towns and facilities throughout the country, offering everything from simple bathing in regenerative waters to longer, more sophisticated, stays in lovely spa resorts.

Although Hungary is a landlocked country, Lake Balaton, central Europe's largest fresh water lake, is often called "the Hungarian sea". The, more than 70-kilometre long, lake with its soft and silky blue-green water is one of Hungary's most frequented resorts. The open water contests of the 2017 FINA World Championships will be organised there, though that will be just one of the many aquatics events organized there, since Lake Balaton often welcomes swimming and sailing competitions and a cross-Balaton swimming competition is held annually.

We are happy to recall that the first European Swimming Championship (1926) took place in Budapest, followed – in great part thanks to the remarkable achievements of our athletes and professionals – by four more events; in 1958, 2006, 2010 and 2012 (with the last event in Debrecen).

Hungary proudly holds 8th position in both the all-time Olympic medal table and in that of the FINA World Championships, while ranking 5th in the European Championships (aquatics); despite being 108th according to size and 84th according to population.

Hungary was also among the eight founding nations of FINA and we are honoured to be hosting the third major global sport event. We very much look forward to welcoming you to the 17th FINA World Championships!

2.2. WELCOME TO BUDAPEST

Budapest is the capital, and the largest city, of Hungary; a metropolis which leaves the visitor thirsting for more. This impressive capital has some of the very best that Hungary has to offer. It is a large, vibrant city, harbouring a population of approximately 2 million people. Being one of the most densely populated cities in the region, it is not just the powerhouse of the Hungarian economy, but also an important cultural centre and the focus of the country's political life.

The history of the city began with Aquincum, which was originally a Celtic settlement that became the Roman capital of Lower Pannonia and the Hungarians arrived in the territory in the 9th Century. Budapest became a single city, occupying both banks of the River Danube, with the unification of Pest, Buda and Óbuda in 1873.

Today Budapest is a popular tourist destination in Europe. Even on a short stay there are many things worth seeing in Budapest.

2.3. WELCOME TO BALATONFÜRED

The capital of the northern shore of Lake Balaton, the town of Balatonfüred is the largest resort town on Lake Balaton; and perhaps the best-known. Its popularity is largely due to its proximity to the huge, 77km, lake and its being a favourable spot for swimming and all nature of water sports; though it is also known for its aerated mineral springs and its Mediterranean climate. Its tourist attraction is the perfect mix of sports, therapeutic services and culture.

Balatonfüred sits by the deeper waters of the lake's north side and has a population of some 13,500 inhabitants. Easily reached by road, rail, water or even cycle route, it is the oldest of the Lake Balaton bathing resorts, with an harmonious blend of past and present in the white-sailed yachts, the steamship 'Kisfaludy' in the port, the swans on the lake along Tagore Promenade and the splendid view of the Tihany Peninsula with the Abbey perched on top.

3.4. VISA INFORMATION

Hungary is a Member of the Schengen Area. Visas and residence permits issued by one Schengen Member State is valid also for Hungary, and visas/residence permits issued by the Hungarian authorities are – as a general rule – also valid for the entire Schengen Area.

SCHENGEN MEMBER STATES:

Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, Liechtenstein.

Hungary issues visas itself in 89 countries, while in 67 more countries Hungary is represented by another Member State in issuing visas.

Check the Annex to see if you are eligible for visa-free entry.

WHERE TO SUBMIT A VISA APPLICATION?

Uniform visa applications must be submitted at the Hungarian Embassy/Consulate General in your country or at the Embassy/Consulate General representing Hungary in visa issuance.

WHICH OF THE HUNGARIAN CONSULATES IS RESPONSIBLE FOR ISSUING A VISA?

- a) where the applicant resides legally and has a habitual residence (the applicant is a citizen of the given country or holds a permit which makes a stay longer than 3 months possible – e.g., a residence permit),
- b) where the applicant does not have habitual residence or the right of long term stay, but at the given moment is staying there legally and has given reasons for applying at that consulate. This is not a personal right; it depends on the consulate's consideration and can only happen for an extremely good reason.

The stay is legal if, according to the third country's law, the applicant is entitled to stay within the consulate's authorized area for a short period (e.g., with a visa) or for a longer period (e.g., with a residence permit).

If there is no Hungarian consulate in the country where the applicant has his/her habitual residence, another Member State may represent Hungary for the issue of visas, within the framework of an existing visa representation agreement.

In the case that there is no Hungarian representation, nor another Member State issuing visas on behalf of Hungary in the country where the applicant has his/her habitual residence, a visa application can be submitted at any Hungarian Embassy/Consulate General outside the Schengen Area.

Please have a look at the list of the embassies and consulates at the end of this chapter.

WHO CAN SUBMIT A VISA APPLICATION?

The application should be submitted personally by the applicant.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

1. Applications shall be lodged no more than three months before the start of the intended visit.
2. Decisions about admissible applications, as main rule, must be made within 15 calendar days counted from submission of the application. It is therefore advised to submit the application earlier than 15 calendar days before your planned departure. The consulate takes no responsibility for delayed submission and therefore for failed travel.
3. The period covered by the visa may be extended up to a maximum of 30 calendar days or (in exceptional circumstances) a maximum of 60 calendar days.

Visa fee: 60 EUR per person

THE VISA FEE IS EUR 35 FOR APPLICANTS BELONGING TO ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CATEGORIES:

The brand new Danube Aquatics Arena

3.5 COMPETITION AND TRAINING VENUES

The events of the 17th FINA World Masters Championships 2017 in Hungary, will take place at 4 competition venues (3 in Budapest, 1 in Balatonfüred). Two Water Wonder Parks adjacent to the venues, with shops, food courts and entertainment areas, also await participants.

DANUBE AQUATICS ARENA

The Danube Aquatics Arena is situated to the north side of the Dagály Swimming Baths site on the east bank of the River Danube, in the heart of the Hungarian capital, where throughout the course of history, natural springs have given birth to a series of important baths. The dimensions of the complex are complemented by the broad river and the tall structures of the Árpád Bridge. The Danube Aquatics Arena consists of two main facilities for the 2017 World Championships: a permanent building with seating for up to 6,000 spectators and a temporary facility, constructed specifically for the World Championships, which will host additional stands and support facilities.

The main building is designed to remain an outstanding structural adornment in Budapest; even after the temporary extension has been dismantled. The essential purpose of the final structure is the unique ability to fulfil the needs of the major Hungarian aquatics organizations of swimming, water polo, synchronized swimming and Diving.

ALFRÉD HAJÓS COMPLEX

The Alfréd Hajós Complex was Hungary's first indoor swimming pool and the premiere location for domestic water sports.

In addition to hosting competitors of all ages in various aquatic sports - swimming, water polo, synchronized swimming, diving, scuba diving, modern pentathlon and triathlon - the facilities are also open for public use.

The indoor swimming pool was built in 1930, on the basis of the plans and design of Hungary's very first Olympic champion, Alfréd Hajós. The first outdoor pool and the diving facility were completed in 1937 and have been remodelled and extended several times since. The Margaret Island Swimming Complex was last refurbished prior to the 2006 European Aquatics Championships, when it was extended with an additional open, Olympic-size pool and another diving pool. This extension was named after legendary swimming coach, Tamás Széchy. Currently, 8 open-air or covered swimming pools, and international standard diving platforms, covering nearly 80,000 m<sup>2</sup> are available to professional and recreational athletes and the general public.

The Alfréd Hajós Complex has already served as the main competition venue at numerous major championships over recent decades. Most fans surely remember the 2001 Men's European Water Polo Championships, the 2006 and the 2010 European Aquatics Championships; where the home crowds witnessed many memorable Hungarian victories. There were also the modern pentathlon European Championships in 1954 and 1999, Water Polo Champions' League Finals and, for many years, the Complex been the location for a number of other prestigious international summer Water Polo tournaments.

The Complex is located on Margaret Island, in a scenic environment, which is accessible to motorized vehicles only with specific authorization.

- Tram number 4 or 6, to Margaret Island, (8-10 minute walk to the main entrance)

HEROES SQUARE, THE CITY PARK

During wintertime, the ice rink in the City Park (Városliget) is used for ice skating by both adults and children. The ice rink has always played an important role in the lives of sport-lovers, as the whole city has been able to enjoy the fun of winter since the beginning of the 1900s. As the second ice rink in Europe to be given an artificial freezing system, skaters have been able to use the rink even during very mild winters from as far back as World War I.

The City Park, and the ice rink have already been the main location for a number of important competitive sports events; such as the very first European Speed Skating Championships.

World War II left its mark on the ice rink, though after its reconstruction, it underwent a serious modernizing change in the 1960s the sixties when the 300m skating track became a 400m standard track. After what had been a long gap, the ice rink was once again able to host the European Speed Skating Championships in January, 2012; the efficient organisation of which, and the beautiful surroundings, captivated the entire continent.

After so many memorable events, the ice rink will once again be presented a new challenge at the 2017 FINA World Championships and World Masters Championships. This venue will be the location of the synchronised swimming competitions, which will require two temporary pools, instead of ice, on the rink. This initial event may well lead to a tradition, as the conditions here are great! There is the scenic view of the park, the monumental sculptures of Heroes Square, Vajdahunyad Castle next to the rink, and the historic building of the "Múcsarnok" exhibition hall.

A sight from Lake Balaton

LAKE BALATON – BALATONFÜRED

A true paradise for open water swimmers, Lake Balaton is a well-tested venue for major aquatic events. The course is located by the main promenade of Balatonfüred, which offers a brilliant view of the race and the Tihany peninsula. Balaton, Central Europe's largest fresh-water lake, will be a comfortably warm and safe environment for participants.

TECHNICAL SPECIFICATION:

Commissioning:	August, 2017
Event:	Open Water Swimming
Seating capacity:	2,850

DIRECTIONS:

(Balatonfüred is located 129km from Budapest)

- By train, starting from Kelenföldi Pályaudvar (Railway Station)
- By coach, starting from Budapest Népliget Bus Station (accessible by Metro Line 3)
- On highway: M7, exit at 90km, take Route 710-7

Please note that the OC is to arrange special transportation for the registered Masters open water swimming participants once the number of entries are known: further details will be available on the event website.

The freshwater lake is quite shallow, perfect for fun in the water with friends and children or with a hired paddle boat. Most of the beaches have been renovated and are fully equipped, while the quality of the water is excellent. Offshore though, the waters are deep enough for sailing, so Balaton is also a popular mid-European sailing spot.

The cultural centre of Balatonfüred on the northern shore, a place for concerts and open-air theatres all summer long, should not be missed. The promenade on the lakeside is one of the most beautiful around Lake Balaton. Tihany is also a must-see spot with its hill-top church, its panoramic view and its winding, romantic streets with restaurants and souvenir shops. The hill and the town of Badacsony are mainly associated with quality white wines, though it is also a popular hiking spot and has a nice beach, too. Szigliget is loved for its citadel ruins and its wonderful view. These hills are the part of the Balaton Uplands National Park, which also includes the spectacular Káli Basin.

At the western end of the lake, can be found not only the health-giving waters of the world's largest natural, biologically active, thermal lake at Hévíz, but also one of the three largest baroque palaces in Hungary, the Festetics Palace in Keszthely. For contrast, after the grandeur and elegance of the palace, the area's tiny jungle, Little Balaton, a paradise for endangered plants and for 250 bird species, is not to be missed.

The highlights of the southern shore are the towns of Siófok with its vibrant night life and Zamárdi, with its Adventure Park and great beach, which is home to a number of music festivals during the summer season. Fonyód has the longest sandy beach on Lake Balaton and from its harbour it is possible to reach Badacsony by boat.

5.3. PLACES TO VISIT

5.3.1. BUDAPEST

Budapest is the capital, and the largest city, of Hungary; a metropolis which leaves the visitor thirsting for more. This impressive capital has some of the very best that Hungary has to offer. It is a large, vibrant city, harbouring a population of approximately 2 million people. Being one of the most densely populated cities in the region, it is not just the powerhouse of the Hungarian economy, but also an important cultural centre and the focus of the country's political life.

The history of the city began with Aquincum, which was originally a Celtic settlement that became the Roman capital of Lower Pannonia and the Hungarians arrived in the territory in the 9th Century. Budapest became a single city, occupying both banks of the River Danube, with the unification of Pest, Buda and Óbuda in 1873.

Today Budapest is a popular tourist destination in Europe. Even on a short stay there are many things worth seeing in Budapest. The city has the largest thermal water system in the world, it contains the first underground railway to be built on the European continent and the Hungarian capital has the third largest Parliament building in the world, as well as the largest, and one of the grandest, synagogues in Europe.

The Buda Castle Hill, with the 700-year-old Matthias Church, the Royal Palace and the Fishermen's Bastion, is among the most charming of World Heritage Sites and it is from there that the panorama of the city and the river, with its many bridges – including the first permanent one, the beautiful Chain Bridge. – opens up.

The Opera House, opened in 1884 during the times of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, is attractive not only to music lovers but also to those who wish to admire its architectural beauty. The Opera House is located on Andrassy Avenue, often called "Budapest's Champs-Élysées", which takes the visitor to the Heroes' Square, which was laid out in 1896 to mark the thousandth anniversary of the settlement of Hungary by the Magyars. From there the City Park – with Vajdahunyad Castle, a replica of a Transylvanian castle of the same name, the Budapest Zoological Garden and a number of museums, is only a step away.

The city's cultural life is vibrant and diverse, with museums, galleries, theatres, and concert halls hosting festivals, concerts, exhibitions and other cultural events, the whole year round.

Budapest is packed with museums and galleries – some 223 of them – and there are plenty of temporary exhibitions presenting, not only Hungarian history, art and science, but also universal and European culture and science, in the most unlikely of settings, particularly in summer. Some of the greatest of them are the Hungarian National Museum, the Museum of Fine Arts and the Hungarian National Gallery.

Returning to the topic of water, the city's primary feature is the River Danube, which divides the city between hilly Buda and flat Pest though, in addition, Budapest is also a city of spas, with waters of a unique composition and temperatures and visitors can reinvigorate themselves in one the 19 different thermal baths, including classical, and even Turkish, spas.

Budapest and its surrounding is also a real paradise for sport events, for instance, marathon runs offer splendid views along the two banks of the river and, naturally, let's not forget that the city has already hosted many aquatic events like, for instance, the first European Swimming, Diving, Synchronised Swimming and Water Polo Championships back in 1926, which was later followed by three continental sport events (in 1958, 2006 and 2010).

5.3.2. BALATONFÜRED

The capital of the northern shore of Lake Balaton, the town of Balatonfüred is the largest resort town on Lake Balaton; and perhaps the best-known. Its popularity is largely due to its proximity to the huge, 77km, lake and its being a favourable spot for swimming and all nature of water sports; though it is also known for its aerated mineral springs and its Mediterranean climate. Its tourist attraction is the perfect mix of sports, therapeutic services and culture.

Balatonfüred sits by the deeper waters of the lake's north side and has a population of some 13,500 inhabitants. Easily reached by road, rail, water or even cycle route, it is the oldest of the Lake Balaton bathing resorts, with an harmonious blend of past and present in the white-sailed yachts, the steamship 'Kisfaludy' in the port, the swans on the lake along Tagore Promenade and the splendid view of the Tihany Peninsula with the Abbey perched on top.

Balaton's sailing centre is located here, and it is also the starting point for Europe's longest "Lake Tour" sailing competition, "The Blue Ribbon" (or "Kékszalag" in Hungarian). We must also mention that, in September 2014, the junior open water swimming World Championships were held here, as was the 10km Open Water World Cup, one year later, in 2015! The almost 200 km. cycle route around Lake Balaton also passes through the city and is one of its main attractions.

One of the town's emblematic buildings is the heart hospital, where – among others – Nobel prize-winning poet, Rabindranath Tagore came to regain his health. He fell in love with this beautiful town which, in recognition, named its most charming esplanade after him. It is from that promenade that spectators will be able to follow the open water swimming competitions of the FINA 2017 World Championships. The walkway, which has been recently renovated, extends imposingly by the waterside, shaded by mature trees and fed by winding pathways.

That is also the venue for the three-week long, Balatonfüred Wine Festival, held every August since 1932 and attended by all the major wine producers of the region.

When the Romans arrived in Hungary they found an inhabited settlement here already, and the town is still infinitely rich in historic monuments. Mostly renovated and restored, some of those may today have taken on roles different from their original purpose, but they still for part of local cultural life. The numerous villas and mansions, as well as the national heritage buildings in the old town, contribute to the particular beauty of Balatonfüred and have made the town famous at the far ends of the Earth.
